Here are my edits so far. Can you take a look? I put the additions in bold. After you take a look and the letter is more finalized, I was going to forward it to Sam. The one thing I need to check with Sam is to see if the removal work is still on the table. It may not be since they never signed it and of course there is the issue of past costs if he wants them in the AOC if the only document we will do with them is the AOC.
